

2014 CPAC Award Recipient G12 : Tommaso Iacobelli

Tommaso Iacobelli is a first year student at the University of Windsor where he is pursuing an Honours Business Administration and Computer Science Degree. Tommaso is a highly dedicated student with a true respect for the importance of a good education. He graduated high school first in his class with an average of 99.3%, for which he was awarded the 2014 Governor General's Medal for academic excellence.

Tommaso has been actively involved in both his school and the community. He has been a leader in Campus Crew, assisting students and parents with the important transition from grade school to high school. He has been an active participant in the school's Adopt-A-Family Christmas Program and Canned Food Drives and has volunteered as a scorekeeper for sports teams, operated concession stands for theatre productions, and have been a member of the Cancer Relay for Life Team. Tommaso frequently gives time to tutoring fellow students in various subjects and is also involved with the Ciociaro Club of Windsor, a local cultural club. He is an avid golfer and have enjoyed volunteering at various golf tournaments such as the Canadian Women's Amateur Championship and the Roseland Charity Classic.