

2016 CPAC Award (Grade 10)

Recipient: Song Ling Wang

Sunny Wang is currently a Grade 11 student in the Regional Enhanced Program at The Woodlands School. She is one of this year's recipients of the CPAC Award based on her achievements in her Grade 10 year, where she achieved an average of 95%.

She is an inspiring innovator and social entrepreneur, and a passionate youth leader who believes in the act of community engagement. Over the past 3 years, she has dedicated countless hours of her time towards community service and served as an executive spokesperson for multiple non-profit organizations.

She is a Junior Associate of The Prefects, and holds the position of Executive President at FUSE Society, one of Canada's fastest-growing youth-led business organizations. To date, Sunny has raised over $18,000 and reached more than 6000 students from across the country, empowering them to be more involved in their community as active citizens and future business leaders.

In 2016, Sunny co-founded HexaGro, a social enterprise devoted to eradicating food insecurity through the implementation of sustainable greenhouse products. As the youngest member of the National Executive Board, Sunny spearheaded a variety of initiatives and received top honours at the 2016 SHAD-John Dobson Entrepreneurship Cup. Since its establishment, HexaGro has been featured by media sources such as CTV News London and continues to attract widespread attention from all across Canada.

