

2016 CPAC Award (Grade 12)

Recipient: Mokai Xu

Monica Xu is a first-year student in a double degree program studying Computer Science at the University of Waterloo and Business Administration at Wilfrid Laurier University. She graduated from Bayview Secondary School's International Baccalaureate program where in the past year, she was recognized as a Top Scholar in the York Region District School Board for earning a 100% average in her Top 6 courses. She is one of this year's recipients of the CPAC Award based on her achievements in her final year of high school.

In the past, she has Co-Chaired for the Markham Mayor's Youth Council, represented Canadian industry on international trade missions to China, and is currently working with elementary and high school students to promote better classroom learning. She finds tremendous joy partaking in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics competitions, hackathons, and nonprofit organizations. When Monica is not hard at work, she can be found singing in vocal groups, playing piano, reviewing restaurants, and planning events for her community.

