

2016 CPAC - Queen Financial Group Award (Grade 11)

Recipient: Aiken Chau

Aiken Chau is currently a grade 12 student at Mary Ward Catholic Secondary School. He is one of this year's recipients of the CPAC Award based on his achievements in his Grade 11 year, where he achieved an average of 95%.

Currently, Aiken is the Mary Ward DECA president for the 2016-2017 school year. He has won the competition at the Provincial level himself and now mentors members in their communication skills and business knowledge for DECA competitions.

Outside of school, Aiken is a part of the Vision Youth Leadership Program, where he has worked with other young leaders to create initiatives to help homeless youth and to increase accessibility in the community. He also volunteers at his church as an altar server. Aiken has been previously awarded the Duke of Edinburgh Silver Award and was a recipient of the Ontario Youth Volunteer Services Award in 2014.

Aiken also makes many contributions to the arts community in his school, being on the administration team of their school art show and being the art editor of their school newspaper, The Mary Ward Planet.

