

2018 CPAC Professional Achievement Awards Nomination Package

CPAC and CPAC Foundation invite members of the professional community to nominate candidates for the 2018 CPAC Professional Achievement Awards.

The CPAC Professional Achievement Awards were established in 2009 to recognize and celebrate the achievements of immigrant professionals who have achieved outstanding success and prominent status in a certain profession. Past recipients include scientist Kue Young, artist Chan Hon Goh and executive Kelvin Tran.

Candidates may include individuals who:

- Are Canadian citizens or permanent residents of immigrant background; and
- Have made exceptional contributions in their profession or in a professional field outside their occupation.

Nominations are encouraged from all Canadian citizens and permanent residents, across all professions and across Canada.

Nominations must include the completed 2018 CPAC Professional Achievement Award Nomination Form (included below, add pages if necessary) and a resume of the candidate.

All nomination documents shall be submitted by October 31st, 2018 to office@cpac-canada.ca, Attention Achievement Awards Selection Committee.

The awards will be presented at the CPAC Annual Gala on December 2nd at the Sheraton Parkway Toronto North Hotel.

Enquiries:

If you have any questions regarding the PAA or the CPAC Annual Gala, please do not hesitate to contact Joe Yang, Manager of Operations, joe.yang@cpac-canada.ca or (416) 298-7885 ext. 120.
