

2018 CPAC Young Achiever's Award

Application Package

CPAC and CPAC Foundation invite applications for the 3rd annual CPAC Young Achiever's Award. Modeled after the established CPAC Professional Achievement Awards, CPAC will honour an outstanding young immigrant in Canada to celebrate their community or professional achievements and success locally or abroad. The award recognizes the individual's work based on the positive impact on their peers, their profession/industry, the environment or society.

To be eligible for the award, applicants must be:

- a Canadian citizen or permanent resident who immigrated to Canada; and
- aged 29 years or younger

Eligible activities for consideration include:

- Professional or business successes
- Scientific or technological innovation
- Social entrepreneurship or social innovation
- Volunteerism, leadership or community involvement

Please note:

- Applicant's activities/accomplishments must have taken place within the last two years
- Academic grades are not an influencing factor

To apply, applicants must send in:

- the completed CPAC Young Achiever's Award Application Form (included below, add pages if necessary);
- at least two reference letters;
- any supplementary materials like photos, videos or articles, awards/certificates that highlight your achievements; and
- a one-page letter explaining why you think you are qualified for the award

Please submit all applications to office@cpac-canada.ca by October 31st, 2018, Attention Achievement Awards Selection Committee.

The award recipient will be presented the award alongside the Professional Achievement Awards at the CPAC Annual Gala on Sunday, December 2nd, 2018. The award recipient will give a speech at the event attended by local influencers, politicians, business executives, and community leaders. The award recipient will also gain media exposure through a variety of platforms.

Enquiries:

If you have any questions regarding the YAA or the Gala, please do not hesitate to contact Joe Yang, Manager of Operations, joe.yang@cpac-canada.ca or (416) 298-7885 ext. 120.
