

2014 CPAC Award Recipient (G10): Weizhen Sheng

Weizhen Sheng is currently a grade 11 IB (international baccalaureate) student attending Bayview Secondary School in Thornhill. She enjoys learning in general and likes all her classes. In her spare time, she enjoys debate, reading, and writing short stories.

Ever since she was young, Weizhen has enjoyed participating in and leading group activities. She is currently involved as an executive member within various clubs including her Debate Team, DECA, Red Cross, and the grade 11 Symphonic Winds band, where she plays the clarinet. Outside of school, she is the Director of Logistics in the Town of Richmond Hill's Youth Action Committee, a group that organizes events for the town's youth, and is the Vice-Chair of the York Region Red Cross Youth Action Group, a group of youth dedicated to aiding in various humanitarian efforts within the local area. She also tutors with the Learning Disabilities Association of York Region where she meets weekly with a child with learning disabilities to aid him in areas including reading, speaking and mathematics. Weizhen is passionate about making a difference in the world and has displayed strong leadership and a concern for humanity that is both genuine and action-oriented.
